Fee will increase to $50 if registering at the door. $20 for existing members until one week out where fee will increase to $25. Fee will increase to $30 if registering at the door. Register online at chickasaw.org or through a link at chickasawoa.org. The cost includes food, an O.A. sash, an O.A. Handbook, a lodge flap, new member information, O.A. dues for one-year, free admission to the Fall Fellowship event, and other expenses for the weekend/year.

What to Bring

- Scouting Medical Form (A&B); will be returned at the end of event.
- Signed Lodge Code of Conduct
- Backpack that holds all gear
- Sleeping bag
- Ground cloth, tarp, etc
- Gloves
- Old work shoes
- Toiletries
- Rain gear
- Water bottle
- Work clothes
- Change of clothes
- Full Uniform ("Class A")
- Tent
- Bug repellent
- Extra money for trading post

Expectations

- Ordeal candidates should plan to stay the entire weekend to receive the full Ordeal experience and receive full credit for the Ordeal.
- This is an honor bestowed upon candidates by their troop and the dates have been set for years in advance and the lodge has been preparing for the Ordeal all year.
- Scouts, as always, must come prepared for the weekend. This includes bringing everything listed, as well as the other necessities. In addition, candidates may want to purchase Permanone, an effective insect repellent, particularly potent against ticks.
